Welcome to the world of Off Limits!

Welcome to the world of Off Limits – the folk rock band in a steampunk guise with an unforgettable show full of playfulness, humor and fun.

With the virtuose violinist Julia and polyphonic vocals and archaic didgeridoo sounds, the audience is abducted into a musical world that they have never experienced before.

Off Limits connect Celtic folk and modern rock elements in a unique way, creating a sound that is simply fun and makes you want to dance.

The steampunk look rounds off the musical experience and creates a scene that you won't be able to take your eyes off of.

Whether clubs or festivals; Off Limits excites the audience. A fantastic violin, the original sounds of the didgeridoo and archaic sounds of the shawm condense the grooving rock section into a steamy urge to dance.

Off Limits are:

Marco Neumann - vocals, bodhran, didgeridoo, flutes, shawm

Marcus Friedeberg – vocals, guitar, blues harp, didgeridoo

Mark Winkler – vocals, bass guitar

Julia von Hasselbach – vocals, violin

Jörg Müller – drums
